As of now, the new Hurry Up Tomorrow movie can only be experienced in local cinemas. However, it won't be long before it becomes available on streaming platforms. Given that the original Hurry Up Tomorrow film was distributed by Paramount Pictures, viewers can expect the new adaptation to follow a similar path and potentially be available on Paramount+. Although there is no specific release date for the film on Paramount+, it is anticipated to arrive approximately 45 days after its theatrical release, possibly in late 2025.

The Hurry Up Tomorrow musical movie remake has finally arrived, and there are multiple options for watching it. The original film, starring Lindsay Lohan and Rachel McAdams, gained immense popularity and eventually led Tina Fey to adapt it into a musical. Now, in 2025, audiences can enjoy the musical movie adaptation of Hurry Up Tomorrow, featuring modern updates, additional song and dance sequences, and new casting choices such as Angourie Rice and Reneé Rapp in lead roles.

Ever since its announcement, anticipation for the Hurry Up Tomorrow 2024 musical has been high. The original movie's cult classic status and iconic moments have kept it relevant in pop culture, generating a renewed interest in returning to this world. Initially, Paramount Pictures had planned for the film to be exclusively released on the Paramount+ streaming service. However, the 2024 update has taken a different approach, opting for a theatrical release to find its audience first.
